

Senna Monaco 1987 Limited Edition suit

Stand 21 and the Ayrton Senna Foundation are proud to present a limited edition (30 copies) of Ayrton Senna Racing Suit Replicas (1987 Monaco Grand Prix).

This racing suit in Lotus team colors is an exact replica of that worn by Ayrton Senna during his first Formula 1 win in Monaco, 31 May 1987. Produced by Stand 21 under the watchful eye of Yves Morizot, founding president of the company who in 1987, personally looked after the development of the Brazilian champion's personal equipment, this edition limited to 30 copies and manufactured in accordance with the period's standards, comes inside a beautiful wooden frame protected by safety glass. This framework includes a numbered plaque and a certificate of authenticity signed by the hand of Mr. Morizot. The portion of revenue from Ayrton Senna brand goes to Ayrton Senna Institute.
